No MAG Account

Step 1. Click here to submit an Exostar's Managed Access Gateway (MAG) registration request for your organization.

Step 2. Select Supply Chain Platform – Boeing on the Products & Services page. Within 72 business hours, you should receive an email from Exostar with log in credentials and/or instructions.

NOTE: If you have a token to access applications, you already have a MAG account. If you have never done business with Exostar, or only used Supply Chain Platform - 787, you need a MAG account.

Org MAG Account, No User ID

Step 1. Click here to complete a user registration request.

NOTE: You need your Exostar Organization ID to complete the user registration. If you do not know your Organization ID, please ask any MAG user in your organization to login to MAG and click the My Account tab. The Organization ID displays on the next screen.

Step 2. After you submit your user registration, a MAG administrator in your organization must approve your request.

Step 3. After your request is approved, you receive an automated email with log in credentials and instructions.

MAG Account, Not Subscribed to BSCP

These steps are specific to Administrators.

Step 1. Log in to your MAG account, click the Administration tab, and click the Subscribe to Application sub tab.

Step 2. Click Subscribe to Application next to Supply Chain Platform - Boeing (BSCP).

Step 3. After you submit the request for access, an Exostar Administrator will approve the organization request.

Step 4. After the organization request is approved, you (Administrator) must accept the BSCP Terms and Conditions. After the terms are accepted, users see the Request Access link on the Home tab.

MAG User Account, No BSCP Access

Step 1. Log in to your MAG account, click the Home tab, and click the Request Access link located next to Supply Chain Platform – Boeing.

NOTE: If you do not see the Request Access link, please contact your MAG Organization Administrator. Your Organization Administrator must request access to the application before you can continue.

Step 2. After you submit your request for access, a MAG administrator for your organization (with BSCP administration privileges) needs to authorize your request.

After your request is authorized, you should have access to BSCP within 20 minutes.
